In case there is a delay in communicating the event/information to the Stock Exchanges, the Company shall also provide explanations for the delay.
4. An event / information can be said to have occurred when the Company has become aware of the event / information or as soon as the Company becomes aware of the event / information or as soon as the Key Managerial Personnel has or ought to have reasonably come into possession of the information in the course of the performance of his duties.

VI Criteria for determining materiality of event

The Company shall inform the Stock Exchange of events and developments which are price sensitive in nature or which have a bearing on the performance / operations of the Company or could otherwise substantially impact the company.

In applying the materiality test the Board shall take into account the following:

- Whether the non-reporting of an event or information would result in the discontinuity or alterations of the event or information already available in public domain;
- whether the omission of an event or information is likely to result in a significant market reaction if such event or information became public knowledge at a later date;
- Whether the information is likely to be of use to a reasonable investor as basis for his investment decisions. Any event which in the opinion of the Board is material from a governance point of view and ought to be disclosed to the Stock Exchanges.

An event / information shall be considered material where the impact or potential impact of such event / information exceeds 5% of the Net Sales or 10% of the net worth of the Company whichever is lower, based on the consolidated audited financial statements of the Company for the immediately preceding Financial Year.

The above materiality criteria is only to serve as a guiding reference and the final decision with regard to materiality of an event would vest in the Key Managerial personnel so authorized by the Board of Directors herein.

VII Persons authorized to decide on the materiality of an event / information for the purpose of making disclosure to the Stock Exchanges

The Board has authorized Company Secretary of the Company and in his/her absence the Chief Financial Officer (CFO) to take a view on the materiality of an event having regard to the aforesaid all Material Events / Information which were required to be disclosed to the Stock Exchanges have been informed.

VIII Other Provisions

1. The Company shall provide to the Stock Exchanges in respect such information concerning the Company as the Stock Exchanges may reasonably require in connection with the disclosure of events.
2. The Company may on its own accord confirm or deny any reported event to the Stock Exchanges.
3. In the event of any conflict between the provisions of this Policy and the Companies Act, 2013, the Regulations and/or any other statutory enactments and rules, the provisions of such Companies Act, 2013, the SEBI (Listing Obligations and disclosure Requirements) Regulations 2015 and/or any other statutory enactments, rules etc shall prevail over this Policy.
4. The Company shall disclose on its website all such events or information which has been disclosed to the Stock Exchanges under this Regulation. Such disclosures shall be hosted on the website of the Company for a minimum period of five years.
5. This Policy shall stand amended / modified to the extent so occasioned by any amendment / modification of the SEBI Regulations.

(This Policy is approved by the Board of Directors at its meeting held on September 26, 2024)
